October 16, 2009

Hello, this is Tim Locklair with your weekly Golden Hawk message.

Parents, please mark your calendars for our first early release date on Wednesday, October 21. We will be dismissing students at 11:50 AM. Bag lunches to go will be available for purchase as students leave campus.

On Monday, October 26 Devils Ridge Golf Course will be holding a Charity Classic Golf tournament. The club has generously earmarked 25% of the proceeds from this event to the Golden Hawks Club at Holly Springs High School to be used to support all student athletes. For just $45 you will be treated to golf at Devils Ridge along with Breakfast, lunch, and beverages on the course! This is a fantastic deal for a wonderful cause. For information and to register please contact Raymond Reyes, head golf professional at Devils Ridge, at 557-6101. Thank you for supporting our HSHS athletic programs!

North Carolina School of Science and Math is a free residential high school for motivated rising juniors who would like to pursue a rigorous curriculum in math, science and technology. Ms. Gaddy, NCSSM Admissions Counselor, will meet with freshmen who are considering this opportunity and sophomores interested in applying on Thursday, October 22 at 1:00. Interested students should sign up in Student Services by October 20th.

Holly Springs High will hold its annual Career Expo on Thursday, November 5. Parent volunteers are needed to help with registration, hospitality, and parking from approximately 7:00 AM to 11:30 AM. If you can help, please contact Cyd Brown at HSHSVolunteers@gmail.com or call Ms. Brown at 552-6722.

Thank you for your support of the Golden Hawks! Have a great weekend!
